Dear Mr. Jones:

This responds to your request dated February 12, 2013, to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act/ Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) for documents mentioning the singer Whitney Houston.

The FBI referred your request along with 4 pages, to INTERPOL Washington. We received your request on March 14, 2013. Please refer to the above FOIA number assigned to your request in any additional correspondence.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

The 4 pages referred to INTERPOL Washington, are being withheld in full, pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, Section 552 (b)(7)(D) of the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(7)(D) provides protection for records or information that could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a state, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, information furnished by a confidential source.

Information originating with INTERPOL and foreign National Central Bureaus is provided to INTERPOL Washington pursuant to resolutions adopted by INTERPOL in 1974 and 1988, and the information is provided to INTERPOL Washington with an understanding that it is for law enforcement purposes only.

You must make your appeal in writing and it must be received by the Office of Information Policy within 60-days of the date of the letter denying your request. In addition to mailing your appeal, you may also submit your appeal through the OIPs eFOIA portal at <http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html>. Both the letter and envelope, or the email should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

If you have any questions concerning this request, please contact Gordon Johnson at (202) 616-0201.

Sincerely,

Shawn A. Bray
Director
